Another Pair of "Club Houses" Pulled by the Newark Police.

The police of Newark are following up their raids The police of Newark are following up their raids on the gamblers, and about midnight on Saturday "pulled" two more "dens." The first of these was a place in Commerce street, kept by one John Grinn, a saloon keeper, residing at 183 Plane street. He and the following persons were marched to the station house by the gobbling-up party, consisting of Servense Penadet Medium and Wilson and geants Benedict, Meldrum and Wilson and six patrolmen: -Thomas Grillin, 63 Bleecker street; Louis Sherlock, a cierk all the war from South Carolina; Charles Johnson, a son of Colonel Johnson, the Essex County Jail warden; James Kelly, No. 202 McWnorter street. The den; James Kelly, No. 222 Mewnorter street. The next place "pulled, No. 44 Chestmut street, FURNISHED A SENSATION, as the occupants proved to be of a class not often found in the clutches of the police. It was about one o'clock when Sergeant Benedict and his posse appeared at No. 44. Two sleek-faced, clean locking colored to the police of the police of the police. men were first encountered, but in a retired cham ber, comfortably appointed, were found seated around a table, lanen with cards, arinking glasses, &c., a group of gents, more accustomed to seeing their names in the Bon Ton Bu ettn or the Society Scandauger than in a police report. Inapput from his seat, one of the party demanded lenedict's warrant of authority in breaking in on their privacy so unceremonlossy. The Sergeant at once executed his seat, one of the party demanded benedict's warrant of authority in breaking in on their privacy so unceremoplously. The Sergeant at once executed his warrant, issued by Police Justices John Mills, at the instigation of some resident of the vicinity, declaring the place to be a disorderly house. They claimed it was their private club house, and that to louch them was an infringement of the liberty of the ciuzen. The Sergeant said he knew his duty, and his duty was to march them to the station house. This he did, much to the Astonishment of the liberty of the ciuzen.
